By Elizabeth Malloy, Director, HHS

On Sunday, Nov. 4, the Haddam Historical Society held its 40th Annual Founders' Day Dinner which pays tribute to the town's founding fathers and mothers as well as the Native Americans from whom the Plantation at Thirty Mile Island was purchased for 30 coats in 1662.

Each year the Society bestows the Founders' Day award to a person or persons who have performed an outstanding service to the organization and contributed to furthering the mission of the Haddam Historical Society, which is to preserve, collect, interpret and promote the history and heritage of Haddam for present and future generations.

This year the Society honored a number of worthy individuals who have not only supported the Historical Society but have given back to the community at large in a number of significant ways.

John and Barbara Stellenwerf are long time members of the Society who have assisted at many events and in particular working on the appearance and flowers at the Connecticut Spring Antiques Show. They are also extremely active in the Haddam Garden Club and Brainerd Memorial Library.

Dianne McHutchison has served as the President for the Haddam Historical Society for the last two years and has overseen numerous projects including our new garden shed, strategic plan and an archaeological dig. She is the former president of the Haddam Neck Fair Association and continues to serve on the Fair's Board of Directors. She is involved with the Haddam Neck Congregational Church, Haddam Neck Quilt Show and local land conservation efforts.

Former State Trooper and life-long Higganum resident Jack Calhoun has devoted his time to many causes in town from the Lions to serving on Capital Planning Commission and the Haddam's Zoning Board of Appeals. He is extremely active with the Higganum Congregational Church and volunteers for many local fundraisers including Grimm's Haunted House. He has been the Haddam Historical Society's liaison with the Haddam Shad Museum over the past few years to ensure the museum remains in town. He is a wonderful story-teller and resource of local history and tales.

The Society also honored our dear friend the late Doug Roper who was always available when we needed him. His talent to fix or figure anything out was a gift, and the Society frequently called on Doug to help us with minor to major problems. He would rush down to the Thankful Arnold House Museum in a minute when we called and helped keep the museum and grounds in tip-top shape. He will be missed dearly.

Tylerville tree lighting Dec. 1

On Dec. 1, from 4:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m. there will be a tree lighting in front of Tony's Package Store in Tylerville. It is hosted by Fireworks Hearth & Home, River's Edge Tile & Carpet, Alan's Small Engine Service, the Sibleys, River Valley Provisions, and Tony's Package Store.

There will be singing, food, and good cheer. Come and sit by the fire and enjoy our beautiful tree...plus a visit from SANTA!

Please park only in the Tony's Package Store parking lot. Hope to see you there!

Santa's Mailbox is here!

By Karen Revis

From Nov. 21 to Dec. 20, the Haddam Junior Women's Club will be helping out Santa once again, as they have for over 20 years, by setting up two mailboxes in town so that the children of Haddam can send their letters to Santa. One will be at the Higganum Pharmacy in Higganum Center, and the second will be at the Haddam Post Office. Please include a self-addressed stamped envelope and Santa will write a letter back to your child.

A DOG'S LIFE: TRANSFER STATION EDITION, PART II

By Editorial Staff

Apparently, the folks around town like a little company when they head off to the Haddam Transfer Station to dump their weekly garbage, and dispose of their recyclables. Many folks choose a dog to accompany them. And on Sunday morning, Nov. 11, Transfer Station worker, Sabine, took photos of some of those companions. Does your dog enjoy the weekly transfer station run? Haddam News will run photos of some of the canine friends in the weeks to come.

Local B&B featured in Wall Street Journal

As published in the Wall Street Journal on Nov. 8, 2018

"A New Breed of Innkeepers for the Airbnb Era"

To compete with home-sharing services, bed-and-breakfast owners must be internet and Instagram savvy while baking scones and making guests comfy.

Jeff and Maryan Muthersbaugh didn't plan on becoming innkeepers when they bought their Haddam, Conn., 1765 post-and-beam colonial for $535,000 as a weekend retreat in 2002. Over seven years, the couple invested about $550,000 in improvements to the 5-acre property, including remodeling a cottage and building a carriage house. Then in 2009, Ms. Muthersbaugh, who is 66, lost her job as director of human resources for a manufacturing company.

"I thought, 'I just don't want to sit behind a desk anymore—this is a great house, I want to share it with people,'" she said.

The Muthersbaughs didn't do much to transform their home into an inn, which they dubbed the Nehemiah Brainerd House Bed and Breakfast after its first owner. Nightly rates range from $140 to $400.

"We entertain a lot—always did," said Mr. Muthersbaugh, 63, who also owns an executive-search firm. "Before we opened it as a B&B we used to have family and friends here, and then it was bed-and-breakfast, lunch, drinks, snacks. Now it's bed-and-breakfast—and they pay," he said. Contemplating retirement, the couple have listed the B&B for $974,900.

HKYFA in Championship Semifinals

By Eric Anderson, Public Relations Director, HKYFA

The #2 seeded Cougar A squad traveled to Pierson Park in Cromwell to take on the #6 seeded Cromwell Lions. In week 7 the Cougars prevailed by a 32-7 margin but this time the stakes were much higher with a chance to advance to the title game on the line.

After a pair of fumbles on the first 2 series of the game by HK, Tate Callender ripped off a 62 yard run up the visiting sidelines for a touchdown. Cavin Napolentano split the uprights with authority and the Cougars drew first blood with an early 8-0 advantage. An interception by Cromwell late in the first half deep in Lion territory gave the visiting team a chance of running out the clock and preserving an 8 point deficit but a Cary Harwood tackle at the line of scrimmage and a tackle for a loss and sack by Ben Cozean forced a Lion punt. With Cromwell pinned deep in their own end of the field the HK defense overpowered the offensive line and blocked the punt into the hands of Orion Inkel who ran in for the score with 24 seconds left on the clock. Napolentano kicked the extra point and HK took an 18-0 lead into the break. The HK defense allowed the Lions a 10 play 38 yard drive on their first series of the game but locked out the visiting team for the remainder of the half, allowing only 5 additional yards of total offense.

In the 2nd half the Lions closed the gap to 18-6 with a pass completion in the end zone but the Cougars would answer with a pair of scores by Callender and extra-point kicks by Napolentano to notch the 32-6 win. Callender racked up 188 yards rushing on the day behind stout blocking from the HK offensive unit both at the line of scrimmage and in the open field. Lee Harwood (27 yards) and Orion Inkel (19 yards) contributed on the ground for the Cougars.

The defense was led by Ben Cozean who delivered an impressive performance with 7.5 tackles and a sack. Also contributing on defense were Carey Harwood (3 tackles, 1 sack), Lee Harwood (2.5 tackles), Vincent Scileppi (2.5 tackles) and Nick Fox with 1.5 tackles. Jaden Fulton, Aiden Griswold, Kevin Harrison and Bryce Anderson each contributed one tackle and Anderson had an interception. The defense held Cromwell to 83 yards of total offense on the day.

The win sets a week 1 rematch with East Hartford for the championship. The Hornets beat HK 12-7 at East Hartford in week 1.

The undefeated and #1 seeded Cougar B squad played the #4 seeded Bloomfield Raiders in the early game at Pierson Park.

HK jumped out to an early 12-0 lead but Bloomfield rallied to tie the game before Michael Seward broke free for a 60 yard touchdown run and with a successful extra point run the Cougars went into the half with a 19-12 advantage.

On the first play from scrimmage in the second half Seward found running room to the outside and dashed up the sidelines for a touchdown. Bloomfield battled back with a pair of scores to tie the game at 25-25 with 5:56 remaining. A tense final minutes of play resulted in a deadlock and the game moved to sudden death overtime. HK won the toss and took possession on the Raider 25 yard line but fumbled and Bloomfield recovered the ball. The Raiders would rush into the end zone 2 plays later for the winning touchdown.

Although not the desired result, the team should be proud of their season. No doubt the boys will be back next year looking to build on this year's success.

Know Your Cardiovascular Risk Factors

In the US cardiovascular disease, CVD, kills 600,000 people every year, and is the leading cause of death in the US and the world. Understanding the risk factors helps to reduce morbidity, and reducing the chance of mortality (death), due to cardiovascular disease.

Some things such as age and gender (men over 45, women over 55, and family history) we cannot change, but we can modify a number of risk factors: high blood pressure, high cholesterol, diabetes, smoking, lack of physical activity, obesity, sleep disorders, and depression.

High blood pressure is the number one risk factor that we can change in order to make a significant impact on reducing our chance of death from cardiovascular disease. Blood pressure readings taken daily in your home are a more accurate prognosticator than blood pressure readings taken at the doctor's office. The ways to reduce high blood pressure should first start with diet, lowering fats to 10% of daily calories, reducing salt to less than 2.4 grams/day, reducing sugars, and being more active! Being active does not mean you have to get on the treadmill 40 minutes a day, 5 days a week, although that would be a great goal. But, you can at least attempt to get in 10,000 steps a day!

Lastly, Nicotine replacement therapy has been shown to increase the rate of quitting smoking by 50-70%, but you have to stay on for greater than 90 days, to break the habit.

A short history of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church

By Sally Haase

The first Roman Catholics to put down roots in Haddam were three Acadian families in 1756. The Arcadians were French Roman Catholics who lived in what is now Nova Scotia or New France then. The Acadians under British rule refused to honor the Protestant English king. When the French and Indian War broke out, the Acadians again refused allegiance to the crown. So began the Great Expulsion by the British of Acadians to France, Britain, the Caribbean Islands and all along our East Coast. They were pretty much dumped off. The Connecticut legislature assigned three families of several hundred to Haddam. Without the comfort of a Catholic church and after ten years, they returned home to Nova Scotia.

A century later, the great migration from Europe began; first the Irish in the early 19th century, followed by Germans, Italians, Poles and other eastern European Catholics. Requests were made to the Diocese of Boston (yes, Boston) for missionaries in light of the increasing Catholic population in Haddam. Indeed, the bishop did send missionaries to tend to his flock in Haddam, but it wasn't until the establishment of the Hartford Diocese in 1843 that more priests were sent from area churches to minister to the Haddam Catholics.

It is thought that the first Mass in Haddam was said in a private residence in 1876 by Father Phillip Sheriden of the St. Joseph's Church in Chester, who also served Old Saybrook and Essex. A piece of land was acquired on Saybrook Road with the intent of building a church. While funding for the church was procured the parish rented Brainerd Hall for its services. In 1887 St. Peter's Mission was dedicated.

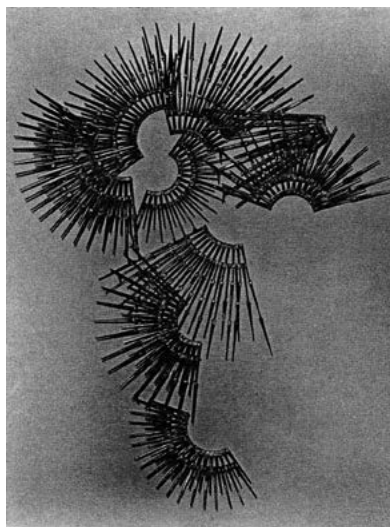

At first the Mass was celebrated only once a month, again by the pastor of the Chester church. By 1911 the mass was offered every two weeks and not until 1919 was a weekly service offered. It was not until 1958 that the bishop of Diocese of Norwich elevated the mission church to a parish, allowing its own priest. [Image: St Peters 1878-1960]

Father Norman St. Martin, the first pastor of St. Peter's Church, set out to raise funds for a new church to serve the growing parish. His plans called for a church hall, a rectory, a convent and classroom for catechism. With Father St. Martin's dedication and enthusiasm a new church was dedicated on June 19, 1960. Interestingly, the old wooden church on Saybrook Road with its Gothic window and a bell tower was converted to a private residence and stands today.

Above the tabernacle hung a metal sculpture created for the new church by the award winning artist William Bowie. Bowie, a mid-century contemporary metal sculptor, is best known for using industrial materials. St. Peter's wall sculpture, a cross of gilded nails, is a representation of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Along the way, it was replaced by a painting of the Devine Mercy. The sculpture, recently found in storage, will hopefully find a new place of honor for parishioners to admire. [Image: St Peters Art Cross]

Adjacent to the church property, on Maple Avenue, a grand turn of the century home was purchased by the diocese for the Motherhouse, a convent. When these sisters moved to a new congregation, sisters from the Apostles of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, from the retreat on Candlewood Hill Road and Brainerd Road, stepped in to help the pastor with teaching catechism to the children. The sisters of the Apostles of the Sacred Heart of Jesus will be the subject of another article in the near future.

Several pastors have served St. Peter's Church since Father Martin died in 1965 that most of us can remember: Father Thomas W. Ahern, Father John

B. Ramsey, Father Edward M. Konopka, and Rev. Jan Swiderski, and Father Peter B. Lizewski. Currently Father Joseph DeCosta, pastor of St Lawrence Church in Killingworth is serving as pastor of the two churches as they have been "yoked" by the diocese. Parochial Vicar, Father Martin J.W. Jones will serve both parishes but reside in the Higganum parish house.

Today, there are about 500 families in the parish. Religious education is an integral part of the church community and the future of the Catholic Church. Catechism is no longer rote memorization of church curriculum as it had been in the past. Rather, Trish Crete, Co-Director of Faith Formation, tells us that children and teens now learn with the help of videos/media in their classrooms as educating youth has changed in our modern world. Teens in Action present teens with the opportunity to travel each summer to "camp" where they help the elderly, and disadvantage with the upkeep of their homes. From the very young to the elderly parishioners, St. Peter's encourages life-long learning and service to their faith and the community. After the three Acadian families came to Haddam 256 years ago, St. Peter's has grown to become a substantial presence in the town of Haddam.

At the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration of the new parish, Father Konopka wrote, "A church would be merely a lifeless concept and a physical structure that would have no real purpose if it did not draw and nurture people - people of God who seek to know Him more intimately and to praise Him worthily."

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Haddam Cooperative Nursery School 50th Anniversary Fundraising Campaign

There is a magic that happens every day, in a small school in our town, with the youngest of students. A tiny child rings a bell, the teachers sing "Circle Time," and everyone gathers in a circle on the rug. In that wiggly circle, the children share their treasures and triumphs. In that wiggly circle, the magic begins – the learning of respect for others and themselves, the beginnings of true and deep kindness, and the love of their community. After circle time, snack is set out by little hands – crumbs and cups and clean up time. Then play time, which is also learning time. Art projects, each a treasure, are set to dry in little cubbies with children's names on little tags. Then jackets on – it's time for fresh air and running and trying to cross the monkey bars one more time (I can do it myself!). Quietly and persistently, the magic of Circle Time has continued to happen for 50 years, in a cheerfully decorated classroom behind the First Congregational Church of Haddam.

In honor of our 50th anniversary, we are excited to announce a special fundraising campaign to raise $20,000. This campaign, which we are calling "Our Legacy & Our Future" will not only help us fund a 50th Anniversary Open House and dedicate a playground plaque, celebrating our legacy, but will also help set our school up for a financially secure future.

HCNS is a non-profit organization run by our beloved teachers and a volunteer parent-led board, operating on a very limited budget. Typically, tuition covers only a small portion of the actual cost of each child's educational experience, while additional funding is obtained through fundraising initiatives throughout the school year. This year more than ever, we need the support of our small town community, as we are having a more difficult time closing the budget shortfall. This gap is driven by significantly lower student enrollment, which as you are so keenly aware, not only impacts us at HCNS, but our regional school district as a whole. As business owners, families of the nursery school, and members of the local community, this is your opportunity to show your support for our nursery school, so that we may not only continue to make this wonderful learning experience possible for the children, but so that we continue to shape our community's future – abundant with kindness, respect, diligence, learning, and play. Would you be willing to make a special, tax-deductible, donation to help us reach our goal and ensure a stable future for our school?

Here are a few ways to donate to our 50th anniversary "Our Legacy & Our Future" campaign:

Make a donation online at our website www.haddam-co-op.org

Letters to the Editor

We encourage Letters to the Editor which foster understanding and awareness through discourse. They should be: civil, knowledgeable, factual, and constructive. The letter must include the writer's name, town, and date, and should not exceed 400 words. The editors reserve the final decision on any letters published; frequency of submissions from a single writer or group will be a factor in deciding whether to publish a letter. The editors may also add a short explanation of the writer's position or credentials.
