Getting to know Haddam's newest Resident Trooper: Michael Stanger

By Meghan Peterson, Ph.D.

Haddam welcomed a new Resident Trooper last fall, upon Trooper Enrico Milardo's retirement Oct. 1, 2019. Trooper Michael Stanger provides coverage for our town during the evening shift hours of 2:30 p.m. to midnight each day.

Having grown up in town as well as having been a proud graduate of Haddam Killingworth High School in 2008, Trooper Stanger returns to Haddam to serve this community.

Trooper Stanger currently lives in our sister town across the River, East Haddam.

After graduating from HKHS, he attended Central Connecticut State University and obtained a B.A. in Criminology. Stanger explains that he was "drawn to this degree due to how competitive the State Police hiring process is." In June 2014, the Connecticut State Police hired Stanger. During that time, he completed the six-month training at the CSP academy and graduated in December 2014. Trooper Stanger began his career with the CSP at the Troop E Barracks, located in Montville, Conn. After working there for three years, he transferred to Troop F in Westbrook, Conn. October 2017.

According to Stanger, "I was drawn to the state police because that was the police force that we had in the town of Haddam and that is what I grew up with. I was first introduced to them while in D.A.R.E in the sixth grade. I am happy to be back in the town where I grew up and look forward to working with the citizens and contributing to a safe community."

Haddam welcomes you, Trooper Stanger!

Trooper Michael Stanger.

HADDAM LAND TRUST

Annual Meeting & Invasive Worms Program: January 25

By Gail Reynolds, Haddam Land Trust

Please join the Haddam Land Trust's Annual Meeting on Saturday, January 25, 2020 at Haddam Firehouse #1, 439 Saybrook Road in Higganum.

A short business meeting at 6:00 p.m. will be followed by pizza and refreshments at 6:30 p.m. At 7:00 p.m., Annise Dobson, PhD, a postdoctoral researcher at Yale School of Forestry and Environmental Studies, will present on program on Invasive Worms.

Did you know that earthworms are not native to Connecticut? Jumping worms are an emerging conservation threat to native species, habitats, industries, and hobbies. These earthworms hail from Asia and arrived in the United States through nursery imports.

Jumping worms alter the structure and chemistry of the soil dramatically, leaving a grainy soil full of worm excrement (castings), and they damage lawns, landscapes and forest habitat. Learn about the worms, current research, and potential solutions.

WHAT CONNECTICUT'S NEW TRUST CODE MEANS TO YOU
Part I of a Two-Part Series
By Attorney D. Jeanne Messick

Connecticut trust law has been overhauled by the adoption of its new Uniform Trust Code effective January 1, 2020. Part I of this two-part Article will highlight important changes for those who have created existing and as yet revocable trusts, and those serving as trustees.

*Additional, broad trustee powers in the Act will be automatically applicable to revocable trusts created prior to and after the Act's effective date, unless the trust creator clearly states an intent to prohibit any powers not referenced in the trust document. It will be important for the person who created the trust to review these new powers for consistency.

*There are mandatory notice rules that will apply to the trustees of all trusts except those that were irrevocable (cannot be changed) prior to 1/1/2020, for certain beneficiaries of a trust, unless the trust document provides for a "designated representative" to receive the notices on the beneficiary's behalf.

Examples of the information that must be disclosed and when the beneficiary notice requirements apply include:

1. The existence of the trust and a copy of the relevant portions of the trust
2. Identity of the trustee and contact information
3. A successor trustee's acceptance of the trustee post
4. A trust becomes irrevocable (example, when the creator of the trust dies)
5. A trustee's resignation
6. The trustee must notify the beneficiary of the right to request an annual report
7. The trust situs (state of administration) changes

Certain of the notice rules may be waived in the trust document. If you have a revocable trust or if you may in the future be serving as a trustee of a trust, you may wish to review the Connecticut Trust Code's impact on your documents or trustee duties.

We stand ready to assist you with your trust and estate planning needs!

Shingles

Almost 1 out of 3 people in the United States will develop shingles in their lifetime, and most will only get it once; however, it is possible to get it a second or third time. The chance of getting shingles increases with age, ranging from 5 in 1000 adults aged 50 to 59 and increasing to 11 in 1000 adults aged 80 years and older.

Herpes Zoster infection (Shingles) is a painful cutaneous (skin) rash that is caused by a reaction of latent varicella virus (VZV). The risk of getting herpes zoster increases with increased age. One of the more significant complications with Shingles is Post-Herpetic Neuralgia (PHN), which is a persistent pain that lasts for up to 90 days after the shingles rash has resolved. Approximately 10-15% of people in which the herpes zoster infection is reactivated will experience Post Herpetic Neuralgia, and that risk increases with age.

The purpose of the shingles vaccine:

- 1) Prevent the reactivating of the latent VZV,
- 2) Decrease the time course of the shingles attack,
- 3) Prevention of Post-Herpetic nerve pain
- 4) Decreased severity of Post-Herpetic nerve pain,
- 5) Decrease the timeline of Post-Herpetic nerve pain.

As always, consult your physician with the first signs of unexplained skin rash, especially if it develops around the trunk area, which is most common, but the rash can erupt elsewhere on the body. Discuss with your doctor preventive the Shingrix injection series.

In and Around The Haddams: January 1920 Local News

Selected from the pages of The Middletown Press and lightly annotated by Sally Haase

Middletown, Jan. 1, 1920: [Note: In December 1919, the Berkley Divinity School, a seminary of the Episcopal Church in Middletown and now located at Yale, invited a speaker who stirred up the community by extolling the virtues of the Bolshevik and socialist ideology.] The laymen of the Episcopal church are seriously concerned over the charges recently made calling the Berkeley Divinity School a "hot bed of socialism." A layman's letter demands that the position of the Episcopal church be made clear. [It reads in part,] "...everybody knows that the Roman Catholic church stands firmly against all socialistic doctrine and that she will fight it whenever she finds it. I think I have a right to know, where the Episcopal church stands on this question of socialism. Does the Episcopal church, as a policy, approve of socialism being preached directly or indirectly from its pulpits by its clergy or ... in schools over which it has jurisdiction?"

Middletown, Jan. 2, 1920: Autoists must get new markers as the 1919 Connecticut automobile licenses expired on Wednesday night midnight. There were today a large number of machines parked along Main street, there owners being in violation of the law.

Higganum, Jan. 2, 1920: Arthur Brooks has received a consignment of coal as many who have been out of coal are rejoicing at the glad news.

Mr. Mance, reader of meters for the Electric Light Co., was in town yesterday, collecting.

East Haddam, Jan. 2, 1920: The banquet served the [local veteran] boys at the Riverside Inn was a great success with compliments for the fine repast. After the social hour they were conveyed to Moodus, where in Continental hall they danced the old year out.

The Fish Net & Twine Co. observed the holidays yesterday, but owing to rush orders the machines were kept running.

The coal yards of W.C. Reynolds were the scenes of much activity this week, when 519 gross tons of coal were removed from a barge and deposited in his sheds.

Middletown, Jan. 5, 1920: F.L. Caulkins has had several opportunities to sell out his business for financial gain. Instead, he has always felt that his carpet and furniture business, established in 1891, belonged to those employees who had stood by him in his past success. Now Mr. Caulkins is giving them the going business and only retains an advisory office.

Haddam, Jan. 7, 1920: The annual meeting of the Philathea Society [a women's international organization for Bible study] was held last evening at the home of Miss Lucy Hazen with Miss Mary Palms and Miss Lucy Dickinson entertaining. The officers chosen for 1920 are Pres. Miss Carrie Shailer, vice-president Mrs. A.M. Clarke, and sec. Miss Phila M. Parmelee.

Middletown, Jan. 9, 1920: The Middlesex County Farm Bureau voted to ask the Common Council to make milk inspections... and to publish the names of milk dealers selling clean milk after each inspection. [This was after several illnesses were traced to contaminated milk.] Chairman Sen. E.W. Hazen of Haddam, entertained the question of employing a woman for this work [inspection] inasmuch as women have proved very satisfactory elsewhere, according to reports.

The bureau directors also considered the desirability of a location in Middletown for a slaughterhouse. They believe it would not be advisable to have a slaughterhouse situated too close to the city as it grows, since it will become less desirable to have cattle passing through streets to such a slaughterhouse.

East Haddam, Jan. 9, 1920: Mrs. V.L. Daniels and Mrs. M.L. Berkowitz left Wednesday to attend the Automobile show in New York city.

The Elmar Garter Co. is doing a good business. Many of the townspeople are taking home work. The only drawback is the firm being unable to procure stock fast enough.

We hear the cry each week that the following one will find much sugar obtainable, but to date we have been unable to procure but a little of the brown [sugar], and thankful for that.

Boston, Jan. 10, 1920: Babe Ruth, real home run king and the greatest batsman of his time, has been sold to the Yankees for a reported price of $125,000. He signed at his own terms for three years with Boston at $10,000 a year. In an attempt to break his contract he then said he would not play this year unless he received $20,000. The Boston management decided to get rid of him...as he disturbed the harmony of the team. Great player that he is, he was so intensely tied up to the dollar side of the game that the sporting feeling was lost.

East Haddam, Jan. 12 & 16, 1920: Lloyd Arnold secured a fine string of perch and pickerel on the Salmon river. Several parties from different cities were here fishing through the ice on Sunday.

The young people are enjoying skating on the river which is very good since the last rain.

The people who have bought the Herchfield place are to engage extensively in poultry and have secured the service of an expert to conduct the plant.

Haddam, Jan. 21, 1920: Thermometers registered from 12 to 20 below zero yesterday morning, according to the reports from various places about town. Mrs. Myron Skinner reported 18 below zero at her home in Higganum.

Haddam Neck, Jan. 23, 1920: The Jolly Juniors met at the school house and elected the following officers: president, Margaret Nielson; vice-president, Ella Gillette; secretary-treasurer Chauncey Brooks. They voted with funds on hand to purchase an organ for the school and a number of books for the church library.

East Haddam, Jan. 23, 1920: The Toy Aeroplane Co. of New York have reconsidered their decision and will again visit town with a view to locating here. Every encouragement should be offered the firm.

The sliding was never better than at present and the young people are enjoying it to a finish. The big double ripper (two sleds fastened together with a board) is in great demand. Rather dangerous passing the curve leading to the bridge approach, but thus far no accidents have happened to mar the sport.

Hartford, Jan. 24, 1920: The Daughters of the American Revolution at the state library held a conference on "Americanization." They resolved: ... that we denounce, as enemies of our country, the "parlor" socialist, communists and bolshevist, whether American or foreign, who spreads these disloyal, destructive and sedition doctrines and that we protest against the leniency which too often allows this gross abuse of freedom of speech to flourish without constraint."

Middletown, Jan. 28, 1920: The outbreak of the Spanish "Flu" brought forcibly before the public the manner in which the Volstead bill has tied up physicians and druggists with the result that even when prescribed by a reputable physician it is hard to obtain alcoholic liquors for medical purposes. The rulings so tie up a druggist that few care to handle liquor in any form even though they sense the need of "Flu" victims having them as a stimulant. [Note: The 18th Amendment (Prohibition) became effective January 17, 1920. The Volstead bill provided for the enforcement of the amendment. Initially, non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices (not more than .05% alcohol) were allowed to be made and consumed at home.]

Haddam and Killingworth's First Census – 1790

By Connie Harris Farrington

On August 2, 1790, United States marshals went door to door by foot, horseback and boat on a hot Monday morning. There were 13 new states plus Kentucky, Vermont, Maine, and Southwest Territories (now Tennessee). Marshals were given nine months to collect the data, but it was to be accurate as of August 2.

The 6 questions included on the census were:

- How many people live at the residence?
- How many are free white males age 16 and up?
- How many free white males are under age 16?
- How many are free white females?
- How many other persons live here?
- How many slaves?

Indians/Native Americans were not counted until 1870.

The number of free white males over 16 would help Thomas Jefferson, Secretary of State, assess the potential for military service.

Calculating statistics from the typed internet pages on dunhamwilcox.net, these are the results:

HADDAM

Number of households: about 356
 Number of residents: about 2105
 Free Males 16 and over: 552
 Free Males under 16: 455
 Free Females: 1093
 Other: 2
 Slaves: 3

1790 census totals are unclear. Images of original census pages are difficult to read. The Haddam Historical Society website reports Haddam's population in 1800 census as 2307, and 2010 census as 8346 residents.

Note that Haddam's 3 slaves were owned by Rev. Elerzer May; Hezh (sic) Brainard, Esqr.; and David Brainard. The 2 "other" residents are accounted for by "Necho (Negro)" with one under Other, and Joel Arnold with one under Other, perhaps a free Indian or Negro.

The 39 Brainard families listed in Haddam offer some interesting first names for Head of Family: Nehemiah, Eliakim, Phinehas, Zadock, Josiah, Cornelius, Jedediah, Elijah, Jeremiah, Bushnell and Prosper.

KILLINGWORTH

Number of households: about 388
 Number of residents: about 2114
 Free Males 16 and over: 581
 Free Males under 16: 447
 Free Females: 1067
 Other: 11
 Slaves: 8

Note that four slaves were owned by William Morgan, Esqr; two by Joseph Willcox 2d; two by other individuals. Killingworth apparently also had one free Negro since listing was Elie (Negro) with one "Other." In the "interesting name" department, I select Brister Bozalee and Theophilus Crane.

CT's Official State website shows Killingworth's numbers as 2047 population in 1800 and 6524 in the 2010 census.

To put the figures in perspective, the US population for the 1790 census was 3.9 million. The 2020 US census is expecting to count 330 million. Let's see how many folks it finds in Haddam and Killingworth.

Life Beyond the Grave

"IN THE WORLD TO COME"

JESUS SAID THERE IS A WORLD TO COME: He said, "There is no one who has left house or parents or brothers or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, <sup>30</sup> who shall not receive many times more... and in the world to come eternal life" (Luke 18:29-30).

THE DEAD WILL LIVE AGAIN: Jesus said, "The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God; and those who hear will live...<sup>28</sup> Do not marvel at this...all who are in the graves will hear His voice <sup>29</sup> and come forth—those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation" (John 5:25-29). "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved..." (Acts 16:31). "I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life" (Revelation 3:5).

WHERE WILL YOU SPEND ETERNITY? "...It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment" (Hebrews 9:27). "Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again'" (John 3:7).

ON JUDGMENT DAY: "All have sinned" (Romans 3:23). "I saw the dead stand before God; and the books were opened; and another book which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works...This is the second death. <sup>15</sup> And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire" (Revelation 20:12-15).

THE DEAD IN CHRIST: "The Lord Himself will descend from heaven... And the dead [who had faith] in Christ will rise first" (1 Thessalonians 4:16). "The trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed...This mortal must put on immortality...then...Death is swallowed up in victory" (1 Corinthians 15:50-54). "Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years" (Revelation 20:6).

TO THE EDITOR

Thank you for Your Generosity During The Gregory Bousquet Holiday Wish Drive

On behalf of Helping Hands and the Killingworth Women's Organization (KWO), we would like to extend our appreciation to members of the community, as well as local businesses, who contributed to the success of the 2019 Gregory Bousquet Holiday Wish Drive (GBHWD). The drive has just completed its 24th year and it is incredible to see how many members of the community support the drive year after year.

Toys and gifts cards fulfilling the wishes of 75 local children were distributed on December 21st to members of our community in need of some additional assistance this time of year. The success of the drive, which this year included total donations greater than ever, was a result of the generosity of many and for this we are very grateful.

Special thanks go to: The Jason Lantieri Memorial Foundation for a very generous donation which helped us achieve our goal; Jackie and Bob Bousquet for allowing us into their hearts to honor the memory of their son, Gregory; Lee Kozlowski, Mary Ann Lisk and Dennis Reed, Principal, of KES; Holly Hageman, School Superintendent Regional District 17; and St. Lawrence Church.

We wish you a joyous and peaceful new year. If you have any questions about the GBHWD or any of the KWO programs, please email: info@kwoc.org.

Genie Dethloff

Co-Chair of Publicity, KWO
